Derwent Hall Caine to Top New Orpheum Bill

"The Iron Hand," Sketch Based on War, Will Be First Week Headliner.

Itall came, believed by many to be the greatest novellat of two decades and undoubtedly one of the best fiction writers of any period, is known in America not only for his books, but for his plays, and the knowledge of these achievements commands attention and respect for anything new Hantican they write. The latest of his literary efforts is a one-act play called "The Iron Hand," which was recently ironfuced in London and which has just been produced in America, where vandeville has claimed it. Detwent Hall Caine will be the nead-line attraction of the new bill opening at the Corpheum with natince Monday.

Derwent Hall Caine will play the leading roll in "The tron Hand," a thrilling bit of drama founded on the words of the kaber spoken at Potsdam at a review of new troops "Children of my Gods, you are now my solders, mine, holy and soul! You have sworn to obey all esommands. From this day on you must know but one one menty and the enemy is my enemy, and if I command you today to fire upon your relatives—your fathers and mothers and sisters and brothers perhaps, remember your oath and obey."

LOEWS LYCEUM

Griffith's Masterfilm Will Be Shown for Three Days at No Price Advance.

With only a two days' start, after a month of enforced closing. Loew's timeses starts out on its first full ceek program Sunday after the decary ays of no amusements in Memphis. Since the enforced closing order went no effect, the interior of Loew's rincess theater has been entirely renvated and rejuvenated and presents a pic and span appearance. Everything as been put in readiness for the first all week's program. Picture patrons are promised an experimently fine program for the coming seek, which will be headed by David V. Griffith's superfilm. "The Great ove." At no advance in prices, "The reat Love" will be shown Sunday, londay and Tuesday with practically it same cast as made Griffith's "The irth of a Nation" and "Hearts of the lorid" famous.

For Sunday the added feature will be new's News Weekly and war pictures, and for Monday and Tuesday, a Charlle haplin comedy, and for Monday and Tuesday, a Charlie Chaplin comedy.

The feature star for Wednesday and hursday will be pretty Ethel Clayton, ho will be offered in "The Girl Who Came Back." In this absorbing story, which has crock life as its background, Miss Clayton is cast he Lois Marther daughter of a jewel thief. She is reared among criminals and takes a certain pride in her work. She is rescued from drowning and falls in love with her rescuer. She turns the tables on the crook gang when it attempts to rob her lover's home, and from then on thrills are numerous and exciting. The added feature will be the new Mack Seniett comedy, "His Wife's Friend."

For Friday and Saturday Mary Pickford, in "The Eagle's Mate." will be shown. Settings for this wild story of girlhood are in the mountains of Virginia, where Miss Pickford is shown as a wild bit of human nature, living as an eagle and fighting as one with her mountain clan. A strong romance of wild life is one of the interesting threads of this mountain thriller. Loew's Current events will be added during this engagement.

WHY RUN-DOWN PALE EXHAUSTED WOMEN SHOULD TAKE IRON

There can be no beautiful, healthy, rosy-cheeked, at a dy nerved women without iron. When the iron pree from the blood of women, the roses po from their cheekes—their charm and attractiveness depart. I always insist that my patients take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—not metallic iron which often corrodes the stomach and does more harm than good). Nuxated Iron is easily assimilated, does not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, irritable, careworn, haggard women in two weeks time in many cases. I have used it in my own practice with most surprising results."—Ferdinand King, M.D., well known New York Physician and medical author.
